

NOVEMBER 18 – 19, 2010
INDIANA STATE FAIRGROUNDS - WEST PAVILION

The Nationalities Council of Indiana invites you and your students to the 2010 International Festival. This annual celebration of the Hoosier states' diversity in culture and ethnic heritage promises a unique opportunity to travel the world...without leaving Indiana! Highlights include cultural booths hosted by volunteers in ethnic dress, authentic food from around the world, ethnic artists demonstrating unique cultural crafts, an International Marketplace, and continuous ethnic music and dance. Friday afternoon visitors will have an opportunity to observe a Naturalization Ceremony at 3:00 PM.

2010 Special Programs!

- Italian Street Painting – The floors of the West Pavilion will be transformed into a color-splashed gallery!
- Explore the Continent of Asia in a BIG Way! The National Geographic Society's Giant Traveling Map of Asia will be available as a tool to explore Asia in a variety of unique ways!
- Check back for additional programs.

Student Passport Program: Have your students explore their own ethnic roots and interact with people from various cultures as part of the Festival's education outreach program. The Eli Lilly foundation provides Passports which students present at Culture Booths throughout the day. By displaying knowledge of the country's currency, language, customs and traditions, students collect stamps in their Passports. One Passport will be provided to each student/chaperone who purchases a ticket.

How To Order Tickets: The Nationalities Council offers field trip opportunities and a special school price to educators on Thursday, November 18th and Friday, November 19th from 10am – 2pm. We suggest grades 1-6 attend Thursday and older students visit Friday. Home school families or smaller school groups may also attend on Friday afternoon after 2pm. Groups attending Friday after 2pm MUST PRESENT THEIR DISCOUNT TICKETS BY 5pm. The special school rate is $3.50 per person. Please remember to include teachers & chaperones in your overall count as these tickets are only available in advance. We will provide one complimentary ticket for every 15 tickets you purchase.
